Day 5: Salta (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full-day excursion to Humahuaca's Gorge

In the morning, we depart from Salta, traveling along National Route 9, leaving behind the city of San Salvador de Jujuy and entering the gorge through the Cuesta de Barcena. We pass through Volcán and Tumbaya, then head west to be amazed by Purmamarca and its magical backdrop: the Hill of Seven Colors where we visit its historic church and the artisan market in the central square. Next, we head to Tilcara, where we explore the famous Pucará, an archaeological site of pre-Inca origin. We pass the Tropic of Capricorn and reach Uquía, whose chapel is among the most beautiful in the region.

Finally, we arrive in the city of Humahuaca, marking the highest point of the excursion, at 3000 meters above sea level. We have lunch and stroll through the historic center, where highlights include the Cathedral, the Cabildo, and the Monument to Independence, also known as El Indio. On the way back to Salta, we enjoy the view of the mountains located on the eastern range, especially the remarkable Painter's Palette, framing the town of Maimará.

Overnight in Salta.

Day 6: Salta (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in Córdoba.

Day 8: Córdoba (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full-day excursion to Jesuitical Estancias

We depart from Córdoba heading north towards Colonia Caroya, a town inhabited by descendants of immigrants from northern Italy and famous for its artisanal salamis. We visit the Jesuit Estancia Casa de Caroya, which served as a summer residence for students of the Monserrat College. Next, we explore Jesús

María, famous for its Rodeo and Folklore Festival, and home to the Jesuit Estancia San Isidro Labrador, a pioneer in wine production in the region.

Noon is the perfect opportunity to enjoy a platter of artisanal salamis or an excellent traditional barbecue accompanied by the typical wines of the region (lunch not included). In the afternoon, we arrive at Santa Catalina Estancia. We are amazed by the beauty of its monumental church, with its white façade standing out against the mountainous sky. We visit the interior, discovering secret passages and immersing ourselves in the magic of popular stories.

Overnight in Córdoba.

Day 9: Córdoba (B / - / -)
