During the tour around the city we will visit the German Colonists Memorial and then head towards the Frutillar city. This city is a beautiful village that recalls the old Bavaria, from where the first colonizers arrived. In 1856 Frutillar was just a boarding pier, soon appeared tanneries, mills and breweries that brought the region to life. We will walk around the beautiful old houses of German style, admiring the gardens and the incomparable views of the Osorno and Puntiagudo volcanoes framing the city.

As an option, passengers can go to the German Colonial Museum which portrays the life of the settlers, and at the lake shore (tickets not included) observe the Teatro del Lago (Lake Theatre) that yearly presents the famous Frutillar Musical Week, a Summer Festival of classic music from Chile and abroad.

We begin our journey departing from San Pedro de Atacama towards the Cordillera de la Sal in the Atacama Desert, the driest place on Earth, heading to one of its most picturesque points: the Valley of the Moon. The names alone provide a clear hint of the landscape, where rock formations sculpted by erosion, salt flats, the Great Dune, and views that make us feel like we're on another planet reign.

We visit the Three Marys, the Salt Cavern, and the Amphitheater. As the sunset approaches, we see how the desert changes colors, while the silhouettes of the great volcanoes on the horizon darken. We continue by visiting Ahu Vinapu, with its unique architecture, reminiscent of the constructions of pre-Inca villages.
