Itinerary Details

Day 1: Santiago de Chile (- / - / -)

Upon arrival at Santiago airport, you will be met by our representative and escorted to your hotel.

Overnight in Santiago de Chile.

Day 2: Santiago de Chile (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Halfday city tour

We begin our tour on Avenida Libertador Bernardo O'Higgins, better known as La Alameda, passing by the Presidential Palace of La Moneda, the pedestrian walkways, and Plaza de Armas, surrounded by the Cathedral, the Central Post Office, and the Town Hall of Santiago.

Next, we ascend Cerro Santa Lucía, a strategic point in the city's foundation, and head towards Parque Forestal, the Museum of Fine Arts, and the Lastarria Neighborhood. We cross the Mapocho River to reach the Bellavista Neighborhood, which is known for its strong cultural and artistic activity. Finally, we explore the new city center, visiting the Providencia area, the Las Condes and Vitacura districts, and the Bicentennial Park, one of the city's new landmarks.

Breakfast at the hotel.

Half-day excursion to El Frutillar and Puert Octay

We begin our journey by visiting the city of Llanquihue, famous for its cured meats and the place of origin of the Maullín River. There, we visit Los Cisnes Beach and the Pier, which offers a beautiful view of the Lake and the Volcanoes. Then, we'll drive along Lake Llanquihue to reach Frutillar, a beautiful town with Bavarian reminiscences, where its first settlers came from. We take a walk around its charming old German-style houses, admiring their well-kept gardens and the incomparable view of the Osorno and Puntiagudo volcanoes. Optionally, we can visit the German Colonial Museum, which showcases the life of the settlers, or enjoy a coffee with typical German pastries from this region (not included). We continue to Puerto Octay, also located on the northern shore of the lake, marked by German influence and being the first port for agricultural products bound for Osorno. There, we explore its old streets and Main Square.
