Full day Iguazu Argentinean Falls Excursion

We set off in the morning towards Iguazu National Park, established in 1934 to protect the scenic beauty of the waterfalls, surrounded by the lush subtropical jungle with its characteristic animal and plant species. We arrive at the Visitor Center and reach the Central Station to board the Ecological Train, heading to the Garganta Station. From there, we begin our journey on the walkways circuit, among islets and lush vegetation, until we reach the Garganta del Diablo Balcony, where we enjoy the impressive Garganta del Diablo, the largest waterfall in the falls with a height of 72 meters and an average flow of 1,700 m^3/s. We return to the Garganta Station to head to the Cataratas Station, where we start the Upper and Lower Circuits, descending to the Two Sisters, Mbiguá, Chico, Ramírez, Bosetti, and the imposing San Martín waterfall. We continue to the Peñón de Bella Vista, visiting the Alvar Núñez and Lanusse falls.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION TO ARGENTINIAN IGUAZÚ FALLS (NOT INCLUDED): Great Adventure

On board all-terrain vehicles are accompanied by specialist guides. We embark on an 8 km journey through the Misiones jungle along the Yacaratia trail, within Iguazu National Park. Along the way, we discover specimens of the local flora and fauna, arriving at the jungle base of Puerto Macuco.

There, we descend towards the floating dock to put on our life jackets and board the semi-rigid rubber boats, beginning our navigation on the Iguazu River. We enter the waterfall area, where we can observe the combination of the Brazilian and Argentinian falls and reach the most thrilling point where we come face to face with the impressive San Martín waterfall, enjoying the freshness of its waters in the famous 'baptism of the mists".

Overnight in Puerto Iguazú.

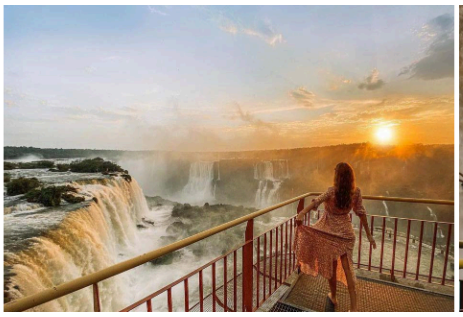

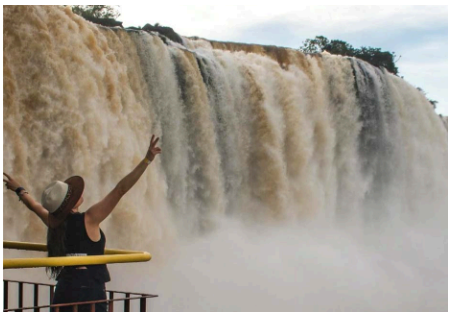

Day 6: Puerto Iguazú (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in Puerto Iguazú.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Half-day excursion to Brazilian Waterfalls

We head from Puerto Iguazú towards the border with Brazil, crossing the Tancredo Neves Bridge over the Iguazu River. We arrive at the Visitor's Center at the entrance to the Brazilian National Park, where we board the ecological bus and travel 20 km through the Paraná jungle until we reach the beginning of the boardwalk circuit. There, we enjoy a panoramic view of the falls located on the Argentinian side and San Martín Island.

We progress along the 1,200 meters of boardwalk, while the sound of the water becomes increasingly intense. Finally, we conclude our walk at the Floriano Falls in Brazil.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION TO BRAZILIAN WATERFALLS (NOT INCLUDED):

Parque Das Aves

This Nature Sanctuary shelters rescued birds that have been victims of trafficking and mistreatment and can no longer return to their natural habitat. It features five immersive aviaries, where we can get up close to the birds of the Atlantic Forest: yacutinga turkeys, Alagoas curassows, the incredible Toco Toucan with its enormous beak, and a flock of nearly 100 macaws flying overhead.

It is also possible to see harpy eagles, owls, parrots, and reptiles such as caimans, anacondas, and boa constrictors. Finally, we stop at the restaurant (consumption not included) where we can enjoy an exclusive view of the flamingo lake.

Day 7: Puerto Iguazú – Rio de Janeiro (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

At agreed time you will be transferred to Puerto Iguazu airport.

Upon arrival at Rio de Janeiro airport, you will be met by our representative and escorted to your hotel.
