During the visit you can see temples, squares, terraces, houses, barns, as well as the great biodiversity that exists in the surroundings. It is worth noting that the beauty of Machu Picchu is exalted by the extraordinary scenery where it is located.Around the citadel has been formed a National Reserve that has an area of 32,500 hectares, and that includes a constellation of archaeological monuments, which, in our opinion, were built as part of the Machu Picchu complex and not in isolation. At the indicated time we will return to the town of Aguas Calientes, where we have lunch included.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE NEW MACHU PICCHU ENTRY REGULATIONS

Current regulations for visits to Machu Picchu require that, during the first entry to the archaeological site, visitors must be accompanied by an official guide and follow one of the established circuits within the citadel. Guided visits last approximately 2 hours, and the specific circuit assigned will depend on availability at the time the reservation is formally requested.

If visitors wish to re-enter Machu Picchu in the afternoon, return the following day for an additional visit, or visit Huayna Picchu Mountain or Machu Picchu Mountain, an additional entrance ticket must be purchased in advance. Tickets are not sold at the entrance of the archaeological site.

It is not possible to reserve spaces for Machu Picchu without purchasing an entrance ticket. The only way to guarantee availability is by purchasing the admission ticket. To do so, it is necessary to provide updated passenger information, including full name, date of birth, nationality, and passport or identification document number. This information must exactly match the identification document carried during the trip.

This requirement is particularly important for visits to sites such as the Inca Trail and the Sacred City of Machu Picchu (including Huayna Picchu Mountain and Machu Picchu Mountain), where local authorities require visitors to present their original, valid identification at the entrance checkpoint.

Once a Machu Picchu entrance ticket has been issued, it is NON-REFUNDABLE, NON-TRANSFERABLE, and NON-MODIFIABLE, in accordance with the regulations established by the authorities responsible for managing access to the archaeological site.
