Day 2: Buenos Aires (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Half-day city tour

In three exciting hours of fun, our team of reliable drivers and very passionate and helpful tour guides with excellent English skills will take you on a tour around the city of Buenos Aires, bringing it to life with their live commentary full of background, facts and insights that travelers will not find in any book or guidebook. This tour offers the perfect balance between driving and walking, which will allow you to get an excellent overview of the most emblematic areas and districts of the city in just half a day, thus gaining a deeper understanding of key places within Buenos Aires: Plaza de Mayo, 9 de Julio street, Casa Rosada, La Boca neighborhood and many other attractions.

The tour ends with the return to the hotel.

Overnight in Buenos Aires.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Tango Show and Dinner at Café de Los Angelitos

Witness more than one hundred years of Buenos Aires history at the forefront of tango, Café Los Angelitos. The show covers an entire era in a luxurious and distinguished way. Every night, more than 20 artists on stage invite travelers to share a unique and unforgettable experience. It was the place where Carlos Gardel established his bar in 1912 when he started his artistic career forming a duet with José Razzano. The latter, in 1944, composed a famous tango with lyrics by Cátulo Castillo, entitled precisely “Café de los Angelitos”. Combine the modern and traditional aspects of tango by attending this glamorous show with professional dancers and musicians in a pleasant atmosphere. A 3-course dinner is optional.

Day 5: Puerto Iguazú (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full-day excursion to Argentinian Iguazú Falls

We set off in the morning towards Iguazu National Park, established in 1934 to protect the scenic beauty of the waterfalls, surrounded by the lush subtropical jungle with its characteristic animal and plant species.

We arrive at the Visitor Center and reach the Central Station to board the Ecological Train, heading to the Garganta Station. From there, we begin our journey on the walkways circuit, among islets and lush vegetation, until we reach the Garganta del Diablo Balcony, where we enjoy the impressive Garganta del Diablo, the largest waterfall in the falls with a height of 72 meters and an average flow of 1,700 m^3/s. We return to the Garganta Station to head to the Cataratas Station, where we start the Upper and Lower Circuits, descending to the Two Sisters, Mbiguá, Chico, Ramírez, Bosetti, and the imposing San Martín waterfall. We continue to the Peñón de Bella Vista, visiting the Alvar Núñez and Lanusse falls.

In the afternoon, we come back to the hotel.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION TO ARGENTINIAN IGUAZÚ FALLS (NOT INCLUDED): Great Adventure

On board all-terrain vehicles are accompanied by specialist guides. We embark on an 8 km journey through the Misiones jungle along the Yacaratia trail, within Iguazu National Park. Along the way, we discover specimens of the local flora and fauna, arriving at the jungle base of Puerto Macuco.

There, we descend towards the floating dock to put on our life jackets and board the semi-rigid rubber boats, beginning our navigation on the Iguazu River. We enter the waterfall area, where we can observe the combination of the Brazilian and Argentinian falls and reach the most thrilling point where we come face to face with the impressive San Martín waterfall, enjoying the freshness of its waters in the famous 'baptism of the mists".

Overnight in Puerto Iguazú.

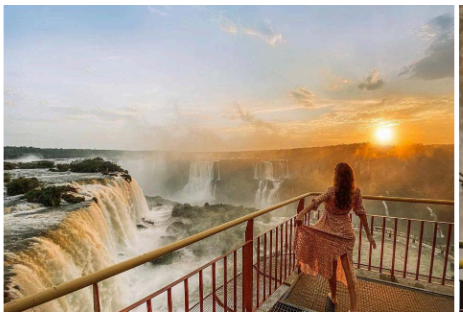

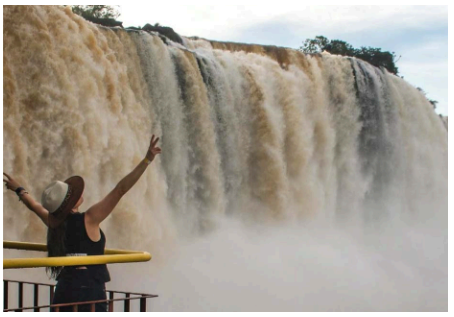

Day 6: Puerto Iguazú (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in Puerto Iguazú.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Half-day excursion to Brazilian Waterfalls

We head from Puerto Iguazú towards the border with Brazil, crossing the Tancredo Neves Bridge over the Iguazu River. We arrive at the Visitor's Center at the entrance to the Brazilian National Park, where we board the ecological bus and travel 20 km through the Paraná jungle until we reach the beginning of the boardwalk circuit. There, we enjoy a panoramic view of the falls located on the Argentinian side and San Martín Island.

We progress along the 1,200 meters of boardwalk, while the sound of the water becomes increasingly intense. Finally, we conclude our walk at the Floriano Falls in Brazil.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION TO BRAZILIAN WATERFALLS (NOT INCLUDED): Parque Das Aves

This Nature Sanctuary shelters rescued birds that have been victims of trafficking and mistreatment and can no longer return to their natural habitat. It features five immersive aviaries, where we can get up close to the birds of the Atlantic Forest: yacutinga turkeys, Alagoas curassows, the incredible Toco Toucan with its enormous beak, and a flock of nearly 100 macaws flying overhead.

It is also possible to see harpy eagles, owls, parrots, and reptiles such as caimans, anacondas, and boa constrictors. Finally, we stop at the restaurant (consumption not included) where we can enjoy an exclusive view of the flamingo lake.

Day 7: Puerto Iguazú – Puerto Madryn (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

At the set time, we will transfer you to the airport in Puerto Iguazú to board your flight to Puerto Madryn.

Upon arrival at the airport in Trelew, one of our representatives will be waiting to escort you to your hotel located in Puerto Madryn.

Overnight in Puerto Madryn.

Day 8: Puerto Madryn (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full-day excursion to Península de Valdés

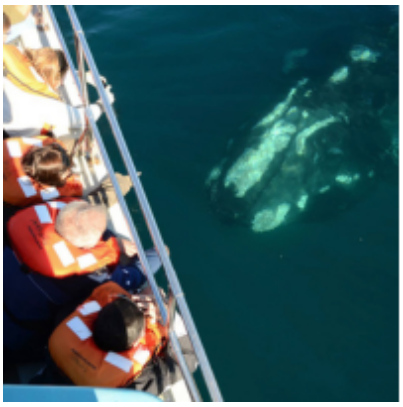

We depart in the morning towards Península Valdes Protected Area, an UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1999. One hour later we arrive in Puerto Pirámides, a charming environment-friendly village; for a regular boat tour to see Southern Right whales from June to December (optional activity, not included). After lunch (not included) we continue our trip to the south of the peninsula. The ride takes us through wide plains, spotting local wildlife such as guanacos, rheas, foxes, cavies, armadillos and skunks. We reach two big salt lakes -Salina Grande and Salina Chica-, and see Punta Delgada -the southern tip of the peninsula-, before getting to Punta Cantor to appreciate the beauty of the Atlantic coastline and the geological formation known as Caleta Valdés, a stunning ocean inlet. According to the time of year, these beaches host Southern elephant seals, the largest seals on the planet. On our way back to Puerto Madryn, we make a stop at the Visitor Center Carlos Ameghino, a compendium of the natural wealth of the peninsula.

Overnight in Puerto Madryn.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION AVAILABLE FROM JUNE TO DECEMBER: Whales Watching Navigation

From Puerto Pirámides, we sail through the waters of the Gulf Nuevo, accompanied by a specialist guide who will teach us all about the biological cycle of the whales: mating, birth, and calf rearing.

The journey begins by skirting the coast, where we observe colonies of cormorants and other specimens of coastal birdlife, before heading out to sea to encounter the southern right whales. These whales typically arrive in this area between June and December for mating and calving.

We enjoy this amazing experience in the company of the whales for an hour and a half and then return to Puerto Madryn.

Day 9: Puerto Madryn (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in Puerto Madryn.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Chubut River Valley

We leave early in the morning for the Chubut River Valley. The first stop is the city of Trelew, where passengers may choose to visit the iconic Egidio Feruglio Palaeontological Museum, one of the most important in Latin America in its speciality. It covers all the geological eras, from the first human being on earth to the Big Bang. It has approximately 30 dinosaurs and 2000 fossils.

The skeleton of the world's largest dinosaur, the Patagotitan, was the latest discovery. We continue our journey west to the town of Gaiman, 15 km from Trelew. It is located on the northern bank of the Chubut River. Gaiman preserves traces of the Welsh colonization in the region.

The old and traditional architecture, the Welsh tea experience (optional, not included) with its incredible variety of cakes, and the singular beauty of the valley. Moving on with the tour, we will go through the farm area where different rural establishments are dedicated to agrotourism offering a great variety of handmade products. Finally, we return to the city of Puerto Madryn in the afternoon.

Day 10: Puerto Madryn – Ushuaia (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

At the set time, we will transfer you to the airport in Trelew to board your flight to Ushuaia.

Upon arrival at the airport, one of our representatives will be waiting to escort you to your hotel.

Overnight in Ushuaia.

Day 11: Ushuaia (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Tierra Del Fuego National Park

Early in the morning we set off to Tierra del Fuego National Park, which is located 12 km from the center of the city of Ushuaia. Before entering the National Park, we stop at the End of the World Train station where passengers who wish may choose to take the journey of the mythical train that ends inside the National Park. However, those who do not travel by train can enjoy a short walk in the Fuegian forest. Once the train tour is over, the group meets again inside the Park with the guide to continue the tour to Ensenada, a bay that combines the Andes, the sub-Antarctic forest and the sea in the same place. Native people inhabited there and their archaeological remains are found. We continue to Acigami Glacier Lake (Roca) shared with Chile, to appreciate the flora and fauna that will surprise us with their beauty, and Lapataia Bay, where the sign indicating that we have reached the end of the Pan-American route is located.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION (NOT INCLUDED): End of the World Train

Originally, the mythical Ferrocarril Austral Fueguino departs from the prison, nestled in the heart of Ushuaia city. This train would carry prisoners into the depths of the Fuegian forest, where they ventured to gather firewood for heating both the penitentiary and the burgeoning township of Ushuaia.

The train resumed its operations in 1994, only for tourist purposes. Nowadays, the journey starts at the "End of the World" Station, aboard a replica of the "Prisoner's Train." As we embark, ancient forests, meandering rivers, pristine bogs, and the reconstruction of an indigenous settlement unfold before our eyes. The ride includes a stop at Macarena Waterfall, and it concludes at Tierra del Fuego National Park, where we meet with our guide to continue our adventure.

Overnight in Ushuaia.

OPTIONAL PM TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Sea Lions, Birds and Lighthouse

We set off from the local tourist dock, traversing the vast Bay of Ushuaia, taking in the silhouette of the city of Ushuaia nestled at the base of the Andes Mountains, until reaching the Beagle Channel.

We sail around Bird Island, where we can appreciate the Fuegian birdlife, and Wolf Island, where we can observe one and two-haired sea lions. Both islands belong to the Bridges archipelago. Upon reaching Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse - colloquially known as the Lighthouse at the End of the World - we can admire colonies of Imperial and Rock Cormorants and capture the typical postcard shot with the lighthouse behind us.

Day 12: Ushuaia (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in Ushuaia.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Esmeralda Lagoon Trekking

We depart from Ushuaia heading north towards Tierra Mayor Valley Natural and Scenic Reserve. From there, we start our trek, crossing the Lasifashaj Valley and discovering forests of lengas, peat bogs, and rocky terrain along our way.

The ascent continues, following the course of the Esmeralda River, until we reach the indescribable lagoon of the same name, a small glacial lake that owes its name to the color imparted by sediments from the Ojo del Albino Glacier. There, we enjoy the view of the lagoon, framed by the mountains, and the distant glacier.

Day 13: Ushuaia – El Calafate (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

At the set time, we will transfer you to the airpoirt in Ushuaia to board your flight to El Calafate.

Upon arrival at the airport, one of our representatives will be waiting for you to accompany you to the selected hotel.

Overnight in El Calafate.

Day 14: El Calafate (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full-day excursion to Perito Moreno Glacier

Early in the morning, we depart from El Calafate towards Los Glaciares National Park. The road is a succession of lakes, streams, forests, and snow-capped mountains. The entrance to Los Glaciares National Park is located at the western tip of the Magallanes Peninsula. From there, we begin our journey along the boardwalk circuit, which has a total length of 3 km. The boardwalks are at different levels and allow us to contemplate the glacier's front from various perspectives and viewpoints. Depending on physical conditions, we can reach the lower balconies -closer to the glacier- or stay on the upper balconies, which are easily accessible for anyone. Once the visit is over, we return to El Calafate via the same route.

Overnight in El Calafate.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Nautical Safari

To enjoy this optional excursion, we head to the Bajo Las Sombras port, where we board a boat to cross the Rico Arm of Lake Argentino, witnessing the icebergs detached from the walls of the Perito Moreno Glacier. The boat stops at a safe distance from the glacier, allowing us to contemplate its full grandeur and majesty. Then, we continue sailing in front of the Perito Moreno, covering its entire length, and enjoying a spectacular view of the ice calving from its southern wall.

Day 15: El Calafate (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Day at leisure.

Overnight in El Calafate.

OPTIONAL TOUR NOT INCLUDED: Nibepo Aike Country Day

The experience begins with a transfer from El Calafate to Estancia Nibepo Aike, a historic working ranch located within Los Glaciares National Park, overlooking Lake Roca and the Andes Mountains. Upon arrival, guests are welcomed with a warm drink and homemade pastries before setting out on a guided walk around the traditional ranch buildings.

The visit offers insight into the lives of the pioneering families who first settled this remote land, and a close-up look at rural Patagonian traditions. Guests can witness sheep shearing by hand, cattle herding, and daily ranch tasks performed by local gauchos. For those who wish, a short horseback ride is available to a scenic viewpoint with sweeping views of the lakes and surrounding glaciers.

The day ends with a traditional Patagonian lunch served in the ranch's quincho, featuring slow-roasted lamb cooked over an open fire, fresh salads, and dessert. After this immersive taste of Patagonian life, guests return to El Calafate in the afternoon.

Day 16: El Calafate (B / - / -)

Breakfast at the hotel.

At the set time, you will be transferred to the airport in El Calafate to take your flight and continue with your itinerary.

End of our services.

About our itineraries
